Adventure Holidays

If you're looking for excitement, New Zealand is the place. After all, this is the country that invented the inboard jet engine, bungy jumping and zorbing.

Take a helicopter from the lodge and land on a glacier or peer into a volcano, take the plunge with white water rafting or combine a hiking-jetboating-scenic flight into the wilderness. Take the helm of a sailing boat or the handlebars of a Harley.

We do this by investing in future-focused conservation projects that make our world a better place.
